NEWS ITEMS

The University of Toronto Library has been designated a depository library to receive all unrestricted United Nations documents. Publications of many foreign Universities and Learned Societies which were withheld from distribution during the war years have now begun to come to the Library. The Library has recently subscribed to the following new periodicals: Critique, International Law Quarterly, Lectures, Lettres Romanes, American Journal of Occupational Therapy, Human Relations, Population Studies, International Journal of Opinion and Attitude Research, Journal of Cuneiform Studies, Canadian Journal of Psychology.

Mr. A. Gordon Burns of the Press has been re-elected President of the Toronto Graphic Arts Association and has been elected Vice-President of the National Council of Printers and Lithographers.

Dr. Harold Wookey, Assistant Professor of Surgery in the Faculty of Medicine and Surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital, addressed a large audience at the Royal College of Surgeons in Lincoln's Inn Fields, England, on September 30th. Dr. Wookey, who was appointed a Hunterian Professor in the Royal College of Surgeons last April, spoke on malignant diseases of the oesophagus, a subject in which he has had a long and active interest. Previous to the lecture, he had attended the meeting of the International Congress of Surgeons held in London for the first time since the war.

Books published by members of the staff:

Management in Marketing, by S. B. Stocking.

Godwin's Enquiry Concerning Political Justice, by F. E. L. Priestley.
